I enjoy running Bob Corcoran's articles in both Chicago Agent magazine's print edition and Miami Agent magazine's e-newsletters because they all have relevant, timely information that speaks to all of our Realtor readers. Corcoran is a prolific writer who really knows what he is talking about, and his articles speak to the entire spectrum of Realtors, from rookies to seasoned veterans.

Bob's article titled, "Inexpensive Investments, Invaluable Returns," ran in our July 2008 issue and was well-received by our readership. In the current real estate climate, our readers are looking for ways to trim their budgets without compromising the quality of contact with their clients. Bob's advice on a variety of simple but effective communication tactics was timely and informative.
